

Funding each year will be dependent upon fundraiser proceeds. This year, five $500 scholarships will be awarded!

- Scholarships will be awarded to qualified candidates
- Please Note: The scholarship funding may not be applied toward the FMEA Clinic/Conference in January.

Criteria

1. Applicant must have been a member in good standing of FEMEA for the past 2 years.
2. Application must:
 - Outline how funding would be utilized
 - Include a breakdown of anticipated costs
 - State the significance of how this training will impact student learning
 - State how professional development learning will be shared with colleagues
3. Funding may be applied toward:
 - Graduate-level coursework in an accredited Music Education degree program.
 - Workshop/conference registration, transportation, and/or housing.

(This funding may NOT be used to pay membership dues for any organization.)
4. A brief follow-up article will be required, including documentation of how the scholarship funds were spent. This article will be published on the FEMEA web site. This article must be sent to the FEMEA Executive Director on or before September 1st.
5. All receipts must be submitted to the FEMEA Executive Director on or before June 1st.

Application postmark deadline: February 15th.

Selected applicants will be notified by March 30th.

The applications will be evaluated and awardees selected by a committee of Board members to be appointed by the FEMEA President.
